Milwaukee celebrates 54th Juneteenth

Photos by Yvonne Kemp

On Thursday, June 19, 2025, Northcott Neighborhood House, Inc., hosted the 54th Annual Juneteenth Festival. This year's theme was "Juneteenth – A Celebration of Love, Life, and Freedom." The day began with the Juneteenth Jubilee Parade, which started at 14th Street and Atkinson Avenue on Milwaukee's nothside. The route heads south along Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Drive, to Locust Street. After the parade thousands of festival goers enjoyed live music, food and many different vendors.

After the festivities ended in Bronzeville the celebration moved to the Summerfest grounds with a special opening ceremony and a performance by The Isley Brothers with Eric Benét headline the BMO Pavilion. On Saturday, June 21, 2025, the first official "Taste of Juneteenth" featured music by Gary Clark, Jr., Bone Thugs-N-Harmony, Ginuwine, Joy Oladokun, Mike Jones, Fabolous, The Shonn Hinton Experience, Buffalo Nichols and many more.

Milwaukee's Gee's Clippers celebrates 30 years with block party

On Friday, June 20, 2025, Gee's Clippers, located on historic King Drive in Milwaukee, celebrated its 30th anniversary with a block party at the shop on 2200 N. MLK, Jr., Dr., emphasizing its role in the community through wellness clinics and mentorship initiatives. The event included food, music and live entertainment for the whole community. Also on hand were many civic and community leaders who praised Gee's Clippers' owner, Gaulien Smith, for the initiatives that he has spearheaded through his barbershop, including "Real Men Real Talk" which helps young and older men dealing with life issues, the community health clinic, and their anti-violence work with youth through the "Hello Summer" program and Camp Rise.

"They're more than a barbershop, they're part of the fabric of the community. They do so many things, whether it's health care or haircuts, they have the real talk for men," said Milwaukee County Sheriff Denita Ball.

"Gee's Clippers has continuously given back, bringing resources to the community and trying to make this world a little better than we found it," Smith said.

Local leaders raise Juneteenth flag over Milwaukee City Hall

The pouring rain didn't stop early Juneteenth celebrations from taking place on Wednesday, June 18, 2025.

Milwaukee leaders gathered at the Zeidler Municipal Building to raise the Juneteenth flag.

Milwaukee officials said it's important to remember and reflect on the history of Juneteenth.

"It's about freedom. It's about liberation. It's about showing us who we really are. When we come together, even when there are big, huge, trying challenges before us, there is absolutely nothing that we cannot do," Mayor Cavalier Johnson said.

Milwaukee is home to one of the longest-running Juneteenth celebrations in the country.

Juneteenth was officially recognized by the state of Wisconsin in 2009. It became a federal holiday in 2021 when President Joe Biden signed the Juneteenth National Independence Day Act into law.

"In this city we celebrate who we are. We celebrate our history," said Mayor Johnson.

'Big inconvenience': Shoppers react to Milwaukee-area Pick 'n Save closures

The grocery store chain confirmed Monday that five stores in Milwaukee County will close.

On Monday, June 23, 2025, the parent company of Pick 'n Save announced it is closing five stores in the Milwaukee area.

The impacted Wisconsin stores include:

- 1735 W. Silver Spring Drive, Glendale
- 3701 S. 27th Street, Milwaukee
- 2355 N. 35th Street, Milwaukee
- 2931 S. Chicago Avenue, South Milwaukee
- 2320 W. Ryan Road, Oak Creek.

The closures are a part of a restructuring effort by Kroger, the parent company of grocery chains Pick 'n Save and Metro Market. Kroger plans to close 60 of its stores nationwide over the next 18 months. Five happen to be in southeast Wisconsin.

"It's going to be a big inconvenience for us," said Jeffrey Walker, who shops at the Pick 'n Save on 35th Street.

WISN 12 News spoke to shoppers who learned Monday their grocery store's days were numbered.

"You always hate to hear when a business has to close. It's hard on the community and it's hard on the business," said Susan Luling, who shops at the Ryan Road location.

A Pick 'n Save spokesperson, in a statement to WISN 12 News, said, "We will offer each impacted associate the opportunity to transfer to a nearby location. This closure is part of a larger company-wide decision to run more efficiently and ensure the long-term health of our business."

"It's disappointing. I did read about the closures in the news. I just wasn't sure if this was one of them. So it makes me wonder which of the other ones here in town will be closing too. Because maybe my next choice will also be closed," said Daron Hill, who shops at the Ryan Road location.

Deray Owens, shopping at the Pick 'n Save on 35th Street, said he doesn't have a second choice. The grocery store is just a few minutes away from his house.

"I don't know what we're going to do as a community, where we are going to go grocery shopping if they close it down. What, we're going to go to corner stores and go grocery shopping? I don't know," Owens said.

Owens said he's concerned for his older neighbors who count on the store being close.

"I don't know what they're going to do. Some of them come here on their electric chairs, just to come here and go to the grocery store, trying to do stuff on their own, productive. So, I don't know," Owens said.

Pick 'n Save did not provide information Monday night about when the area closures would happen. According to Kroger's announcement, it'll be sometime over the next 18 months.

Honoring Juneteenth

In 2021, President Joe Biden signed into law the bill that had been passed by unanimous consent in the Senate and 415-14 in the House to establish Juneteenth National Independence Day, June 19, as a federal holiday. Juneteenth marks the jubilant day in 1865 when many of the more than 250,000 people who were enslaved in Texas finally learned they were legally free. This deliberately delayed news was delivered by federal troops arriving in Galveston after the end of the Civil War, reaching them more than two and a half years after President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, that freed all people who were enslaved in the Confederate states.

Honoring Watch Night, or Freedom's Eve, on December 31 is a separate tradition in many black churches and communities that commemorates that night in 1862 when enslaved people who were aware of President Lincoln's intentions gathered and waited for the official news that the Emancipation Proclamation had taken effect. But that declaration of freedom was withheld from enslaved people in many places still under Confederate rule for as long as possible. Texas was the last state where the truth was finally revealed, and so we honor

Juneteenth because, in my beloved friend and role model Fannie Lou Hamer's eternal words, nobody's free until everybody's free.

Many black families have celebrated Juneteenth for generations, a tradition that began in Texas almost immediately following the first "Jubilee Day." In 1968, during the Poor People's Campaign, tens of thousands of people came to Washington, DC, for a rally honoring June 19 as "Solidarity Day." Just weeks after Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s assassination, Rev. Ralph Abernathy said that rally brought together all of us determined to "fulfill [Dr. King's] prophecy of a united, decent America, dedicated anew to the concept of justice for all." The drive to make Juneteenth a national holiday, led by tireless advocates like Mrs. Opal Lee, was another long-awaited milestone. One hundred and sixty years after the first Juneteenth, this year's celebration is occurring at another inflection point as Americans are grappling with what our nation's promised freedom really means, and whether those promises are indeed big enough to cover all Americans. From protests defending immigrants' rights to those opposing dictators and kings, the struggle to define equality and liberty and justice for all is churning in cities and suburbs and small towns across the country.

Where will it go next?

The Juneteenth holiday is not just a historic marker; it's a mirror that reflects both the resilience and celebratory joy of generations of African Americans and the ongoing need to ensure that rights declared become rights realized. This year's observance is an opportunity to focus on the day's full meaning. In the face of sweeping attempts to sanitize storytelling about our nation's past, commemorating Juneteenth invites honoring the full truth of American history, and recognizing that the fight for true freedom is still urgent in the face of new efforts to limit rights for some Americans instead of protecting them for everyone. Will we keep struggling to close the gap between the promise and the practice of justice, and to see that freedom reaches everyone, everywhere, without delay? Once again Juneteenth reminds us above all: nobody's free until everybody's free.

FINDING ELIZA

In celebration of the tenth anniversary of Fodayemi Wilson's ELIZA'S PECULIAR CABINET OF CURIOSITIES at the Lynden Sculpture Garden, Sounding Eliza—a sound-based exploration across land and toward ELIZA'S CABINET—is underway.

To round out this sonic exploration that will journey with visitors across Lynden's grounds and to the Cabinet, we are looking for women and girls, ages 3-100+, named Eliza to be in conversation with this project.

Do you know a local Eliza/Elizabeth/Liz/Eli who might have impactful stories to contribute? If so, please email Polly Morris at pmorris@lydensculpturegarden.org or call 414-446-8794.

Fodayemi Wilson, Eliza's Peculiar Cabinet of Curiosities. Informed by historical research, but represented in the past, present, and future simultaneously, ELIZA's CABINET—and its imagined collection of found and original objects, furnishings and artifacts—is animated by an Afro-Futurist vision that embodies a hopeful version of an African American future.

What is Every Day Counts?

- A 16-week lifestyle program for women living with metastatic breast cancer (cancer that has spread beyond the breast to other parts of the body i.e. brain, liver, bones).
- A program that provides tools for you to gain physical strength and support healthy eating.
- A study that will help us understand how diet and physical activity impact energy and quality of life.

Drive sober, or get pulled over.

When you get arrested for drunk driving, you'll realize that having a few too many isn't worth the hassle, cost and consequences. Last year, over 500 people died on Wisconsin roads, many due to drunk driving. Please drive sober and help reduce fatalities on Wisconsin Roadways.
