The Milwaukee Branch NAACP hosts '101st Annual Freedom Fund Dinner'

On Friday, October 17, 2025, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Milwaukee Branch hosted its "101st Annual Freedom Fund Dinner," at the Baird Center, 400 W. Wisconsin Ave. As the current presidential administration has targeted DEI initiatives and voting rights for African Americans. It was most appropriate that the theme for this year's dinner was "The Fierce Urgency of Now," with the keynote speech delivered by NAACP Board of Directors Vice Chair Karen B. Towns (bottom row, 2nd photo from left). In her speech Towns said, "The clock is ticking not just on our dreams, but on our democracy. The time for waiting has passed...the time for working is now."

Opening its doors in 1924, the NAACP Milwaukee Branch of the NAACP has continued the legacy as the oldest, largest, and strongest civil rights organization in the nation to work for political, educational, social, and economic equality for people of color through nonviolent use of the press, the petition, the ballot and the courts.

Healing Grace Church celebrates Alzheimer's and dementia caregivers

On Saturday, October 18, 2025, Healing Grace Church brought together caregivers, advocates, and supporters for an evening dedicated to education, resource sharing, and recognition of the vital role caregivers of Alzheimer's and dementia patients play in our society at the church, 7906 N 76th St. Attendees had the opportunity to learn about the challenges and responsibilities of caregiving, with a focus on empowering individuals to become informed and compassionate caregivers themselves.

During the event, organizers provided an array of resources for both current caregivers and those facing difficulties in their roles. Special attention was given to the upcoming book release of "She Knew Something Was Wrong," a resource aimed at helping caregivers navigate complex situations and recognize important warning signs. A highlight of the evening was the presentation of a recognition award to Evangelist Margie Jackson, whose story of perseverance inspired everyone in attendance. Despite her personal battle with cancer and undergoing dialysis, Evangelist Margie continues to serve as a caregiver, embodying resilience and dedication. Her journey serves as a beacon of hope and encouragement for others facing an array of challenges.

In addition to the individual award, the event honored 50 current caregivers with acknowledgment awards, celebrating their unwavering commitment and service. The atmosphere was filled with gratitude and a sense of community, as attendees connected and shared their experiences.

Milwaukee loses two local civil rights icons

On Tuesday, October 14, 2025, Milwaukee lost two local civil rights leaders former National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) former president Jerry Ann Hamilton, 90; and former NAACP National Board Member and NAACP president Waukesha County Branch Lilly B. Wilson.

Hamilton, a native of Gulfport, MS as was a graduate of Tougaloo College of Tougaloo, MS where she earned a bachelors of arts degree in Sociology and secondary education. She was married to the late Henry Hamilton, Jr. and was the mother of three children, grandmother to twelve grandchildren and great-grandmother to fourteen great-grandchildren. She passed away peacefully at St. Joseph's Hospital from Alzheimer's.

Hamilton's civil rights mission began at Tougaloo College as the President of the college chapter of the NAACP. As a student, she interviewed the legendary civil rights leader, Medgar Evers. This was a high point in her life and she prides herself with being a civil rights activist for most of her life. Her civil rights mission was steadfast and strong since her days as a college student at Tougaloo, College. Her primary mission included; 1) supporting the brotherhood of mankind, 2) eliminating the idea that one race is inferior to another, and 3) the elimination of segregation and discrimination.

Hamilton admired and revered Dr. Martin Luther King during the civil rights struggle and has followed his philosophy of unity among all people throughout her life. She believed that his works should not be forgotten, as had many other African American heroes. She was one of the first people in the city of Milwaukee to advocate for the celebration of Dr. King's birthday in 1969 as a teacher at Parkman Jr. High School (name change) in Milwaukee Public Schools. She initiated the celebration of Dr. King's birthday at Parkman Junior High, annually until 1978.

As President of the NAACP, for 12 years, she and her administration lead efforts for police reform with the Frank Jude police brutality case, advocated for more Black interns in the construction industry with more minority contracts, fought Mayor-al control of MPS, fought the handcuffing of unruly children in MPS, fought for changes in the BadgerCare health care system, and advocated for change in the areas of voter rights, more certified librarians in all schools, education, health reform and discrimination.

Hamilton also brought the first and only national NAACP Convention to Milwaukee, WI.

Lillie Bell Wilson, 88 was born August 29, 1937, in Brooksville, MS, and raised in Beloit. Wilson spent her life breaking racial barriers and championing justice and equality. She was the eldest of four children born to Lillie Mae and Conrad Brown.

After graduating from Beloit Memorial High School and the Rockford School of Business, Wilson went on to become the first black employee at several major corporations, including Globe Union, Schlitz Brewing Company, ILCI Transportation, Salespower, and GE Medical Systems (now GE Healthcare). While at GE, she helped establish one of the company's first diversity partnerships with the Waukesha County NAACP.

Her decades-long advocacy included serving as president of the NAACP Waukesha Branch, vice president of the Wisconsin NAACP Conference of Branches, board member of the National NAACP, and board member for Waukesha United Way and the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program.

Even after retirement, she continued to lead and inspire — working part-time as a buyer and model with Bruce Paul Goodman, the Fashionable Clothier, where her elegance and creativity shone through.

Hamilton's funeral arrangements are scheduled for Saturday, November 8, 2025, at 11:00AM at Mt. Olive Baptist Church, 5277 N. 36th St.

Wilson memorial services will be announced at a latter date.

MPS recruits retirees to come back to classrooms

Milwaukee Public Schools' (MPS) wants every child to succeed. As part of this goal, the district is working to ensure that a licensed, qualified teacher is in every classroom. A new effort is underway to fill vacancies—MPS is inviting retired teachers to come back to schools and use their skills to support students.

MPS Classroom "We know that gifted educators are looking for a way to get back to the classroom," Superintendent Brenda Cassellius said. "This is an incredible opportunity to do just that."

MPS and MTEA are joining forces to drive the number of teacher vacancies from more than 80 down to 0. This effort is open to retirees interested in coming back full time, part time, or by sharing a classroom with a fellow retiree.

The first 90 retired teachers to be successfully placed in a school and continue to work for six months will be eligible for a $1,000 bonus. The offer is open to retirees from MPS or any other Wisconsin school district.

Teachers can apply for current positions at mpsmke.com

careers – just click the button for the Retiree Interest Form. For questions or more information, email mpskoordinators@milwaukee.k12.wi.us or call (414) 475-8224.
