Photos by Yvonne Kemp

Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc. (TLOD) Milwaukee Chapter proudly celebrated its 40th Anniversary on October 19, 2025, at the Delta by Marriott Hotel. The milestone event, themed "Rooted in Service, Growing in Excellence – Forty Years Strong," honored four decades of impactful service, leadership, and sisterhood in the Milwaukee community.

Distinguished speakers for the occasion included Lady Dorothy Buchanan Wilson, National Area IV Director of Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc. and Milwaukee Chapter Charter Member, and former Milwaukee Top Teen Chapter President; and the former 45th Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin, the Honorable Mandela Barnes.

Special recognition was given to Chapter Organizer Lady Ira Jean Henry and current active Charter Members Lady Deidra Y.A. Edwards, Lady Catherine E. Miles, Lady Jacquelyn Rice, and Lady Margaret Todd for their enduring dedication and leadership. The chapter also celebrated the addition of 12 new members, representing the continued growth and vitality of the organization. The chapter also recognized former and current members of Top Teens of America Youth Group.

Members from the Chicago Chapter joined Milwaukee Chapter members to commemorate this historic occasion, reflecting the unity and strength of the sisterhood across chapters.

The celebration was led by Lady Nesha Beamon, 40th Anniversary Chairman; Lady Deidra Y.A. Edwards, Co-Chairman; and Lady Catherine E. Miles, Honorary Co-Chairman. Lady Dara Atandare serves as the President of the Milwaukee Chapter. The National Area III Director is Lady Vynessa Alexander.

The event offered a variety of resources, including employment and education opportunities, free vaccinations, and health and wellness services. Trick or Treat activities and entertainment were also for children of all ages. Congresswoman Gwen Moore was present to demonstrate her support for the community during challenging times. SNAP benefits may go out in November, here's where you can go for food assistance

Source: Milwaukee Neighborhood News Service

By: Princess Safiya Byers

As October comes to an end, the threat of missing FoodShare and WIC benefits looms for people across Wisconsin and across the nation.

In an October 10, 2025 letter, Sasha Gersten-Paal, director of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program's development division, said: "SNAP has funding available for benefits and operations through the month of October. However, if the current lapse in appropriations continues, there will be insufficient funds to pay full November SNAP benefits for approximately 42 million individuals across the nation." Nearly 700,000 Wisconsinites receive food and nutrition assistance through FoodShare.

Here are some things you can do if you live in Milwaukee and may be impacted by a lack of food resources in November.

Milwaukee's last reserve ladder truck breaks down, as fire chief alerts to aging fleet

Milwaukee Fire Department Chief Aaron Lipski said he hopes to borrow from a neighboring department

Source: WISN 12 News

Milwaukee fire Chief Aaron Lipski announced that the city's last reserve ladder truck broke down Monday while responding to an emergency, leaving the Milwaukee Fire Department short on equipment and needing to borrow from a neighboring department.

Earlier this month, Lipski warned about the aging fleet in a recent finance and personnel committee meeting at city hall.

According to the National Fire Protection Association, front-line engines and ladder trucks should not be more than 15 years old. Currently, Milwaukee Fire Department data shows three engines are already 15 years old, and five are 17 years old. There is one ladder truck that is 21 years old, one ladder truck that is 14 years old and one that is 13 years old. Multiple "reserve" trucks and engines are past their lifetimes, too.

Mayor Cavalier Johnson's proposed 2026 budget includes $2 million for the fire department to repair and replace old equipment, but data from the department indicates that more than $27 million is needed to fix, replace, and ensure all equipment meets national standards within the next two years.

Web Photos

"Chief, what can you buy with $2 million worth of equipment budget?" Alderman Peter Burgelis, the vice chair of the finance and personnel committee, asked during Friday's budget hearing.

"I can probably get a single fire engine and there will be a little leftover," Lipski responded during the meeting.

The latest breakdown occurred Monday near 10th and State streets when the front passenger wheel fell off the truck, which was responding to a medical call.

"I don't know what else I need to demonstrate here," Lipski said on-scene.

The rig was 20 years old, one of more than a dozen in the department that exceeded national standards. Burgelis said he is working on an amendment to Mayor Johnson's proposed budget to get MFD more money to buy new trucks and engines.

"It's probably going to get worse and worse until we're able to repair and have a fleet that meets basic national standards," Burgelis said.

Lipski plans to borrow a truck from a nearby department as soon as possible. Until then, he said, "I don't have a single ladder truck between here and Lake Michigan."

Lipski said his captains Monday were working on moving a ladder truck from elsewhere in the city downtown temporarily. Then he plans to borrow a ladder truck from another department in Milwaukee County until he can get one of his own trucks repaired and back into frontline service.

Despite the breakdown, Lipski said paramedics did the medical call, with dispatch sending a rig from 30th and Galena to take over, which took an additional five to six minutes to arrive.

The mayor's office previously sent WISN 12 News a statement:

"We are working with the Fire Department to make sure they have the equipment needed to keep the city safe. In recent years, we were able to supplement their budgets above historic levels. That said, we face continuing challenges to balance all the competing demands for capital funding with the very limited resources available," the mayor's spokesperson said.

African Americans want to be a part of the productive side of the USA. Yet, African Americans need to understand the situation they are in. Sick people can't help anyone. The assistance needed to solve African American misery may not be in protesting out loud, but changing the mindset of each individual. African Americans can change their situation by changing their minds. If each house on a block cleans their yard, the block will be clean. African Americans need to clean their own yard/minds before they do any protesting in the streets. If African Americans need a place to protest, they should look in the mirror. That protest may pay greater dividends and be much safer than protesting in the streets.

MATC student named Milwaukee Bucks fellow

College students will participate in this career-building internship program.

On Friday, October 24, 2025, Milwaukee Area Technical College student Janae Sampson was officially introduced as part of the Milwaukee Bucks Fellowship Program for the 2025-26 season, in a reception at GATHER at Deer District.

The Fellowship Program is a unique, career-building internship experience designed to provide college students with meaningful exposure to the business of sports and entertainment. Through this program, Fellows gain hands-on experience, professional mentorship, and access to one of the most dynamic organizations in professional sports.

Sampson is an accounting major in MATC's Business & Management Pathway. She was selected for the Fellowship after a competitive process with other local college students. This was the first year MATC students were included in the competitive process. This partnership evolved as a result of relationship-building and hard work with MATC's Career-Hub which assists students with career exploration, internships and transfer opportunities. Ms. Sampson will join a few other college students who also were selected for the fellowship program. Ms. Sampson is already quite accomplished. In the coming weeks, the Fellows and Bucks will meet to plan out specifics of the nearly year-long activities.

Milwaukee School Board approves $1.6 billion final budget for 2025-26

The Milwaukee Board of School Directors on Tuesday, Oct. 28, approved Superintendent Brenda Cassellius's final budget for the 2025-26 school year.

The $1.6 billion budget increases the district's portion of the property tax levy by about $8 per $100,000 of assessed value, a 2.95% rise that remains below the 12-month inflation rate, according to a Tuesday MPS press release.

Cassellius said the plan "maximizes resources for students and schools while demonstrating fiscal prudence and responsibility." Board President Missy Zombor added that the budget expands extracurricular opportunities for middle and high school students.

Key changes from the preliminary budget include $20 million more in state special education funds, $32 million in state aid aided by the 2024 referendum and $22 million less in vacancy savings to strengthen future planning.

The district also claims to have reduced expenses by $11 million to reflect lower enrollment, eliminating 54 vacant positions without layoffs.

Cassellius said work has already begun on the 2026-27 budget.
